3. Our Responsibilities

- If you are a Consumer within the meaning of the Australian Consumer Law, Bunnings warrants, in accordance with the Australian Consumer Law, that goods being supplied under this contract are. Amongst other things, of acceptable quality and the services will be carried out with due care and skill, be fit for purpose and be delivered in a reasonable time. The workmanship and quality of this work are also protected by the specific statutory building warranties.
- Subject to the Australian Consumer Law and applicable building legislation, all other warranties are excluded except for any warranties specified in the schedule and any warranties provided by the product manufacturer.
- Installation work is generally only performed during normal working hours on weekdays. Weekend work can be arranged by mutual agreement.
- Unless specified on the order form, we do not remove old products on the site before or after installation work.
- To the extent permitted by law, including the Australian Consumer Law, we limit our liability to re-supplying the product and performance of installation work, or refunding your payment, at our election.
- To the extent permitted by law, including the Australian Consumer Law, we exclude liability for indirect or consequential loss. Repair facilities for the products may not be available in the future.

4. Your Responsibilities

- You must ensure that the product and the installation services are suitable for your purpose and your site.
- Any information you provide will be relied on by us. You will be liable for any additional costs incurred if your representations are incorrect.
- You must confirm that your site is not subject to heritage requirements and that you have any necessary permits for the installation works which we will be doing.
- If the installation is to take place in a shared property, (unit block, townhouses etc.) you must ensure you have the relevant approval from the body corporate.
- You must ensure that the site is accessible and safe for our subcontractor to install the product.
- You must give us all relevant information about the site beforehand. You must provide our installer with access to amenities, electricity, water, light and gas as required.
- You confirm that you are the home owner or that you have authority from the home owner for the works to be conducted. You must be at home during the installation process.
- If you have a complaint after installation, you must allow us access to your site to inspect.
- If you fail to perform your obligations or if anything you agree to under this contract is not correct or breached, then you must indemnify Bunnings for all costs, expenses and liabilities which we incur as a result, except to the extent that the failure or breach is directly attributable to the negligence or wrongful act or omission or wilful misconduct of Bunnings.

5. Payment

- If our contractor cannot access the site, you may be charged a call out fee of up to $120 inclusive of GST.
- If you want to cancel before the installation, we will try to assist but you may be required to cover our costs. Except as otherwise set out in these terms, no refund is available on custom made or special order products or services that are cancelled prior to installation.
- Title in the product passes to you on the earlier installation or when you pay us in full.
- This contract may be varied by agreement in writing and signed by each party to this contract. The parties also agree to a variation to the scope of works undertaken under this contract provided this is specified in writing and signed by both parties and that the requirements of the schedule (if any) are otherwise complied with.

Termination

- If you provide incorrect information to Bunnings regarding the product and installation, Bunnings may terminate this contract at its discretion, acting reasonably.
